DUBLIN ROYAL CONVENTION CENTER

The Most Exciting Event IN THE WORLD'S Most Exciting Industry

Network with leading figures around the world, build relationships with the longevity science industry and community, and learn about the latest emerging research. Longevity Summit Dublin is a must attend for all science and health enthusiasts.

This is the only conference of its type in Ireland and has the LEV Foundation's committed annual support.

Why You Should Attend

The Longevity Summit Dublin promises an experience where you will:

- Hear investors address regulatory challenges and global opportunities.
- Be among the first to learn about research, breakthroughs, and innovations for the longevity market.
- Hear about cutting-edge go-to-market strategies from select entrepreneurs.
- Gather research about the longevity market.
- Network with exceptional companies and C-suites from all over the globe

Impact

2023 was the year Longevity became a global phenomenon and sparked audience interest
We expect this to grow and luckily, our conference is at the center of it all:

- 100k+ views on Youtube expected for 2024
- Coverage in media outlets such as Forbes, Longevity.Technology, Lifespan.io
- Coverage by Emmy-Winning Filmmaker Chris Smith at Library Films
- Interest and participation by Chair-elect of the American Medical Association
- Dublin Longevity Declaration- Consensus Recommendation to Immediately Expand Research on Extending Healthy Lifespans. Now at 2,000+ signatures
- ...and much more
